Commercialism / Marketing Policy

Presentations Are To Be Non-Commercial

Unless specifically designated, IWC Technical Sessions are noncommercial forums. Individuals shall refrain from the use of brand names and specific product endorsement. Under no circumstances should the session podium be used as a place for promotion of a speaker's product, service, or monetary self-interest.

In written presentations, the use of a corporate affiliation is permitted one time only as an initial reference. Thereafter the company should be referred to as the Company or the Organization. This includes within the Abstract, Body and Acknowledgment sections of the Paper or Report as well as on any slides to be used for the Conference. The use of a corporate logo is permitted only once, preferably on the opening or first slide.

Presentations Are To Be Professional

Presenters from any session podium shall refrain from overt statements or pointed humor which disparages the rightful dignity and social equity of any individual or group.

Copyright

As stated on the Abstract Submittal form the IWC reserves the right of First Publication of any papers accepted for Presentation. If an author has a paper accepted for presentation, he / she must not submit it elsewhere for publication without the written consent of the IWC Committee. Upon publication by IWC, the paper becomes the copyright property of IWC. By signing this form, the Author acknowledges his / her intent to submit the Presentation for publication and obtain the required permissions and consents. The Conference shall be the copyright owner of the Preprint, the final presentation and paper, and of the prepared discussion thereof.
